PES UNIVERSITY, Bangalore

(Established under Karnataka Act No. 16 of 2013)

Department of Computer Science & Engineering

Web Technologies

Question Bank - Introduction

1. With a neat block diagram, describe the components of a web application.

2. Explain the request response model of HTTP with a neat diagram.

3. Compare the GET and POST methods of HTTP request.

4. Write the structure of HTTP request and response messages. Write briefly about the salient components of these messages. What are the different response codes that the server may return?

5. List the different HTTP methods and write their corresponding functionality on the server.